WHAT IS THE EPWORTH LEAGUE?

It is the Young People's Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. It is denominational in the sense that it is controlled by the Church and represents its sentiments and doctrines, but is liberal in inviting any who are in sympathy with those sentiments to join its ranks for mutual improvement and helpfulness in divine things. The Epworth League was organized May 15, 1889, at Cleveland, Ohio, U. S. A., by delegates from several different societies in existence in our Church prior to that time. The word "League" was chosen because of this union, and "Epworth" was prefixed as recalling so many memories of Epworth Rectory, England, the childhood home of John Wesley, the founder of Methodism. There are now Chapters of the League in all the principal countries of the world and the membership numbers over 1,000,000. The Junior Epworth League is a similar organization for boys and girls.

Epworth League Hymns.

Forward Epworth Leaguers!

(Tune: "Onward!")

Forward Epworth Leaguers!
Serving Christ the Lord,
In His work rejoicing,
Loyal to His Word,
Go we forth to conflict
With our living Head;
Those whom Jesus captains,
Are to victory led.

Chorus.—Ever looking upwards,
Steadfast towards the light
Lifting up for Jesus,
Helping with our might.

'Neath our Church's banner
Gathered are our hosts;
For this grand uprising—
In her Lord she boasts.
May her benediction
On us richly rest;
Be her Epworth Leaguers
With God's blessing blest!

What an inspiration!
Girdling all the earth,
Chapter after Chapter
Springs to glorious birth?
Surely by this army
God will wonders work;
Let no Epworth Leaguer
Duty ever shirk!

In the wide world-harvest
We have much to do
For our Lord and Master—
May He find us true!
Hearts there are to comfort;
Clouded lives to cheer;
Many a grievous burden
We may help to bear.

True self-culture gaining
At the Master's feet;
By the Holy Spirit
For His use made meet;
Our own vineyards keeping,
Guarding well the heart.
We shall in life's battle,
Play a worthy part.

Loyal-hearted service
Bring we to our Christ;
For our soul's salvation,
Life He sacrificed.
Ready, ever ready,
To obey His call;
In our hearts we crown Him
Glorious Lord of all!

J. E. R.

God Bless the League.

[Dedicated to the Epworth League in India.]

(Tune: "God Save the Queen.")

1. God bless our Epworth League.
May it Thy Kingdom speed :
God bless our League.
Long may its banner wave
O'er youthful hearts and brave,
Seeking to lift and save,
God bless our League.

2. Lord, bless our Epworth band
And make it firmly stand
Through all the land.
May it go forth to win.
Men from the paths of sin
And bring the wand'rers in .
Lord, bless our band.

3. Blest Spirit, be our Guide ;
Oh, Comforter abide :
Inspire our youth.
Thy mighty power display
In tenements of clay,
Bring in thy glorious day
Of love and truth.

4. Great God in Persons Three,
Most Holy Trinity,
We anthems raise.
Thine all the labors done,
Thine all the victories won :
To Thee, exalted One
Be endless praise.

(Tune : Aurelia.)

1. Lord of all life and blessing,
   Before Thy throne we bow ;
   Our sin and need confessing,
   Thy favour grant us now.
   Be pleased to show in mercy,
   Thy reconciled face ;
   May every soul be strengthened
   With Thy refreshing grace.

2. Our lives—we consecrate them
   To Christ our Saviour King ;
   To Him our gifts of service
   We gratefully would bring ;
   Redeemed by blood most precious,
   Bought with a wondrous price ;
   Accept our souls and bodies—
   A living sacrifice.

3. God bless our own Dear Chapter,
   Its usefulness increase;
   Endue its members richly
   With Christ's own love and peace.
   All other Chapters prosper ;
   Enlarge on every hand,
   Until the LEAGUE with blessing
   Encircles all the land.
